THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

GEN. SICKLES' ORDER NO. 34.

The following order has just come to hand, and is specially important to Sheriffs, Coroners, Chiefs of Police, City Marshals, Chiefs of Detectives, &c., &c., who are charged with the preservation of the public peace. We insert it for the benefit of all:

HEADQ'RS, 2ND MILITARY DISTRICT,
Charleston, S. C., June 3, 1867.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 34.

I. Sheriffs, Chiefs of Police, City Marshals, Chiefs of Detectives and Town Marshals of the several districts, counties, cities, towns, and other municipal organizations, in North Carolina and South Carolina, will at once, by letter, report to Bvt. Col. Edward W. Hinks, U. S. Army, Provost Marshal General of the Second Military District, Charleston, South Carolina, setting forth in the report the name of each officer, his residence, official station, post office address, salary per annum, and the authority by whom appointed. Coroners, Constables and other officers in this Military District, whose duty it is to make arrests, and who are not included in the force of any Sheriff, Chief of Police, City Marshal, Chief of Detectives or Town Marshal, will make individual reports to the Provost Marshal General in like manner and form as above required.

II. Whenever any homicide, rape, mayhem, felonious assault, burglary, arson, robbery or larceny—where the property stolen is of the value of twenty-five dollars and more, shall be committed within any city or town in this Military District, the chief officer of police of such city or town shall at once investigate the case and report the facts to the Provost Marshal General, setting forth the nature of the crime, the name and residence of the party against whose person or property such crime has been committed, the time when and place where it was committed, the name, description and residence of the offender, if known; and if the offender has been arrested, stating what steps have been taken to secure his punishment; and if not in custody, giving any information which may be of service in securing his detection and arrest. Sheriffs of Counties in North Carolina and of Districts in South Carolina, shall investigate and make report of such offences, when committed within their respective counties or districts and not within the limits of any city or town, in like manner and form as herein required of chiefs of police of cities and towns. When an offender, whose offence has been reported, shall be arrested, report of the arrest will be made at once by the officer in charge to the Provost Marshal General.

Consolidated monthly reports of the above enumerated crimes will also be made by the respective officers and for the localities above designated to the Provost Marshal General. Blanks will be furnished by him upon application. The first report to include the period from January 1st to May 31st, 1867.

III. Whenever any prisoner shall break and escape from a penitentiary, jail or other prison, in the Second Military District, the officer in charge of such penitentiary, jail or other prison shall at once make report of the facts to the Provost Marshal General, setting forth in such report the date of escape, the name of each escaped prisoner, his description, age, residence, the crime for which committed, whether under sentence or awaiting trial, whether re captured; and stating fully the manner of the escape and the circumstances under which it was effected. Reports in like form and manner will be made by all officers from whose custody prisoners may escape while being conducted to or from a prison. Whenever a prisoner shall be re-captured the fact will be at once reported to the Provost Marshal General by the officer from whose custody the prisoner escaped. Failure to make prompt report of escaped prisoners as herein required will inculpate the delinquent officer as aiding and abetting the escape.

IV. The Sheriffs of the counties in North Carolina, and of districts in South Carolina, will at once report to the Provost Marshal General the condition of the jails, prisons or work-houses under their charge, or in their respective districts or counties, as to capacity, convenience and security, and the names and residences of the officers responsible for the care of such jails, prisons and work-houses.

V. All civil officers having charge of any jail, prison or work house, in this Military District, shall, on the last day of each month, make a report to the Provost Marshal General upon blanks to be by him prescribed and furnished upon application, of all persons who have been confined in such jail, prison or work-house during the month, setting forth the name of the prisoner, his description, residence, age, when committed, for what offence arrested, by whom arrested, by whose order arrested, whether under sentence or awaiting trial; if under sentence, by what tribunal tried and sentenced; if sentenced, for what period, and the amount of fine or costs, if any; how employed; how subsisted; whether discharged, transferred, escaped or deceased; if discharged, by what authority; if transferred, to what place; and by whom ordered. The first report made under the requirements of this paragraph will include the period from January 1st to May 31st, 1867.

VI. All Sheriffs, Constables, Police and other civil officers and persons, whose duty it is under the Provisional Government of North and South Carolina to serve writs or make arrests, are hereby required to obey and execute the lawful orders of the Provost Marshal General, to the same effect as they are required by law to obey and execute writs, warrants, or other process issued by civil Magistrates.—And any resistance to, or disobedience of the lawful orders or authority of the Provost Marshal General, shall subject the offender to trial by a Military Commission, and, upon conviction, to removal from office and punishment by fine and imprisonment.

VII. Duplicates of the reports required, by the provisions of paragraphs II, III and V of this order, to be made by local officers to the provost Marshal General, will at the same time be sent to the proper post commander.

VII. The performance of the duties enjoined by this order will not be construed to relieve civil officers from the discharge of any of the duties now required of them by the laws of the local Provisional Governments. And any civil officer who shall refuse or neglect to perform promptly the duties herein required of him, or who shall make any false return or report of the matters herein prescribed, shall be dismissed from his office, and be subject to trial by Military Commission for misdemeanor

IX. Sheriffs, constables and other officers, whose official emoluments are confined to costs and fees, shall be allowed for services performed under the orders of the Provost Marshal General, the same costs and fees, to be paid in the same manner as is provided by the laws of the local provisional governments for like service under those laws.

X. All persons in this Military District, who may know of any threatened breach of the peace, or of the commission of any crime or offence, are requested to make complaint thereof at once to the chief police or marshal of the city or town; or, if the crime or disorder shall be committed without the limits of any city or town, to a magistrate or the sheriff of the county or district; and if prompt action shall not be taken by the officer to whom the matter shall be reported, such persons are requested to report all the facts to the post commander and to the Provost Marshal General.

XI. Imprisonment for default in payment of costs, fees, or charges of court, attornies or public officers, shall not exceed thirty days.

By command of
Major General D. E. SICKLES,
J. W. CLOUS,
Capt. 38th U. S. Infantry,

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophies, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

MONDAY, JUNE 10, 1867.

THE DUTY OF THE PEOPLE.

The responsibility of the Southern press, at the present time, is a fearful one. How to advise the people, so as to secure their best future welfare, in view of the exigencies of the present time, is a difficult task, when the gloom of the present is so palpable and the future is so forbidding. Yet some must assume this responsibility, and they should deal honestly with themselves and with the people.

We were by no means hasty in forming our conclusions after the passage of the military bill. Ten anxious days elapsed before we could see a twinkling of light, but, grappling with the stern and stubborn facts before us, we could see then, and can see now, no ray of hope, but in a faithful support and observance of the law, embracing such demands as the party in power chose to impose upon us.

There are, perhaps, three classes of persons in this State whose views ought to be reconciled, it possible, upon this absorbing question. Unity of sentiment among us is desirable, in order to secure unity of action. The judgments of few persons, if any, have been convinced that the Congressional plan of reconstruction is wise, humane or safe, or that it promises in the future what its advocates claim. Leaving out of view the possibility, as charged by some, that Congress designed by it to humiliate, degrade and ruin the South, it is beyond our comprehension to perceive in it any evidences of real statesmanship or any tangible proofs of the philanthropy of the Congress. Yet the experiment must be tried, ruin whom it may.

We have among us, first, the Southern Loyalists, or Radicals, who dislike the plan of Congress because not severe enough, but who accept it in the hope of securing, in some way, a modification more to their liking,—many of whom, it is said, will, with the aid of the blacks, register, if eligible, and vote against a Convention. There is a second class, who are friends of the Union and anxious for restoration, but who are so fully convinced of the want of wisdom and sound statesmanship in the Congressional plan, and of its radical departure from the great principles of the government, that they would prefer military rule for years, rather than this plan, and hence will register, but will vote against the Convention. This class is very small, but many of them are gentlemen of intelligence and worth. There is then, also, a third class, which we judge to be much larger than both of the others together, who desire an early restoration of the State to the Union, and are ready to accept the Congressional platform as it is, in good faith, and will register and vote for the Convention. This class, as a general rule, prefer any other kind of government to a military government; but their great object is to procure our early restoration to the Union, as affording the only possible hope of peace and quiet, of stability in the government, of a settled and reliable labor system, of improvement in our financial condition, and as the only means of the increase of capital and immigration. Our views correspond with this class. Hence we urgently call upon all citizens of the State to register by all means and to vote, and vote only for those who are eligible to the Convention, men of tried integrity and reliability, who will make the Congressional platform the basis of their action—nothing more, nothing less.

NUMBER 34.

We re-publish Gen. Sickles' last order on our first page this morning, in order that the public, so far as our circulation extends, may become fully acquainted with its requirements. The official publication of these numerous and rapidly-multiplying edicts is confined to two papers in the State, which are only read by a certain class in the community; and it is therefore indispensable, in order that the people may be thoroughly advised, and may not violate any of them through ignorance, that these orders should be promptly disseminated and impressed upon their attention.

As to General Order, No. 34, we do not see that it can do much harm or is calculated to accomplish any good. It so greatly diversifies and complicates the duties of the class of officers embraced in its provisions, that we apprehend confusion, and, perhaps, inefficiency may be the result. In view of the increased amount of labor imposed, we fear that many civil officers, on the impulse of the moment, may feel disposed to resign. This course we should regard as unwise in the extreme. Let them take the order, conform their action closely to it, and be vigilant, attentive and active in the preservation of peace and quiet. We must and do assume that this is the object and motive of the Commanding General, in the promulgation of his various orders, however much we may question the adaptation of some of them to that end. But it is our province to obey—not to criticize. As our friend of the Wilmington Dispatch says: "The less we have to say,—the less we croak and grumble,—the better will be the frame of mind in which we will find ourselves, and the easier it will be to yield our submission."

The readers of Dickens will remember Mark Tapley. He was the best of fellows and always tried to be "jolly under adverse circumstances." Let us try to imitate Mark.

President Johnson pathetically inquires in his speech at Raleigh, Monday, "Where are the Smiths and Joneses?" We saw a paragraph a few days since to the effect that John Smith had settled in Memphis. We haven't the slightest idea in the world where the Joneses are.—Lynchburg Republican.

PARTIES IN NORTH CAROLINA.

There is a good deal said, as we think, to very little purpose, in regard to parties in this State. So far as a division of the people into parties, as understood at the North, there will be none. The great body of the people here are for carrying out, in good faith, the reconstruction measures of Congress. They will elect throughly loyal men as members of Congress and Senators.—They will belong to the Union Republican party, for very few others can qualify according to law. The old Democratic politicians in this State went Confederate to a man, and therefore we shall have no Democrats or Copperheads to run for Congress who can take the required oath, unless we import them from beyond the Potomac. There will, however, as it seems, be a division of our people on other issues. Ex-Gov. Holden is trying to organize a party composed of his personal friends who are in favor of Thad. Stevens' confiscation scheme. This scheme meets with no favor from the out and out Union men and Republicans in this State. They will present their own candidates in opposition to the Thad. Stevens-Holdenite confiscation party. We understand that many of the men who were induced to give Holden's preliminary move for a party a partial acquiescence, are now calling for a new deal. Hence, Holden's call for a meeting of his State committe on the 5th. inst. We are not in the secrets of either Mr. Holden or his committee, but it is understood that one of the things which the ambitious portion of the committee will insist on is, that Mr. Holden shall take a back seat in his own synagogue. The grounds for this move are that no party can have Gov. Holden in it and live. But as Mr. Holden has the Congressional advertising, which will keep him afloat, support or no support from the people, will he consent to take a back seat and quail down? We think he will not.—Therefore, we shall have the Holden committee continued. They will probably put forward candidates for all the principal offices, especially for members of Congress and Senators, and as the object of this committee will be the carrying out of Gov. Holden's, or Stevens' confiscation policy, which is opposed by all the leading republicans in the State, he will get such friends from the North to join him as are willing to come among us and run on his platform. We already hear of aspirants for Congressional honors in nearly every district in the State, among men of this class. The Colonels, the Majors, and the Captains are swarming on every side of us. In some districts there are already too many for the offices to be filled, and we heard of one who proposed to colonize in an adjoining Congressional district, where he thought he would have less opposition to contend with. But the people will have something to say on these matters.

The above extract is taken from the editorial columns of the Old North State, though not written by the editor, who, we regret to learn, has been quite ill. We cannot say whether Mr. Holden will consent to take a back seat or not. The indications are that Messrs. Holden, Dockery, Pool, Carter, Dick, Settle, Thomas, Arendell, Jones, Harris, Grissom, &c., &c., will all have to take back seats. They had better do it with as good a grace as possible, or the screws will be put on. Ere this, the Old North State will have learned that the Holden State Executive Republican committee is defunct and will meet no more. Alas! alas!

[Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.]

REIGN OF TERROR IN TENNESSEE—OUTRAGES BY THE MILITIA—CITIZENS FLYING TO OTHER STATES—PROTECTION CALLED FOR, &c.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Advices from Tennessee indicate that the State militia are creating terror among the people of Middle Tennessee by oppression, unwarrantable searches and arrests, and in some instances by the murder of citizens.

Several cases of murder are named, one in which a man was dragged from his house and killed in the most brutal manner, in the presence of his wife. The body was then carried to the woods by the murderers, who sent a message to his family that they could have the body if they chose to go after it.

These outrages are alleged to have been committed by the State militia, and the terror stricken citizens of Tennessee petition the federal government for protection for life and property. They say if speedy relief from these outrages be not granted, they will be compelled to abandon their homes and seek safety in the adjoining States.—Several instances are given of destruction of property and sacking of the homes of peaceable citizens by bands of the militia.

Let the people of North Carolina take warning. The same state of things as the foregoing will be the result of ultra-Radical rule in this State.

WE BELIEVE it was Pope, who said:

"All seems infected that the infected spy,
As all looks yellow to the jaundiced eye."

The Raleigh Standard is not yet able to remove the film of "rebellion" from its eyes, which overspread them, in 1861, when it saw, adown the vista of the future, the anniversary of the secession of North Carolina "celebrated with bonfires, illuminations and processions." It sees "rebellion" everywhere now—on the Railroads, among the people, at the University, in the tour of President Johnson—rebellion "flashing from every pump handle and glittering in every star." Afflicted man!

THE NORTH CAROLINA Presbyterian, alluding to Gen. Sickles' removal of the Mayor and Commissioners of Fayetteville, says:

"As no cause is assigned for the removal of our town authorities, except a general allegation of "inefficiency," we take occasion to say that, in the judgment of our citizens, the officers, who are removed, are not inferior in worth, intelligence and efficiency in the discharge of every duty, public and private, to any who have ever held the office of Mayor and Commissioners since the town was incorporated by our General Assembly."

VISITORS RETURNED.—We were pleased to meet again in our office yesterday, Dr. Letterman, Mr. Hogeman and Mr. DeWolf, on their return from the Western counties. We think their visit has been productive of much good for the future. They appear highly delighted with this "Switzerland of America," and the treatment they received at the hands of the hospitable people of our Mountains. Our friends Col. Thomas called a meeting of the Indians, and introduced the strangers to them, and got up an Indian dance and Ball play, to the delight of all. The strangers tell us they "feasted high on Mountain Trout, Fresh and Dried Venison, Squirrels," and other wild game, in which our Mountains abound. Their "tale of travel" has just set our mouth to watering for the good things of Macon and Jackson counties, and we intend making a visit out there, to satisfy our curiosity—gastronomic powers.—Asheville News.

MEETING OF THE LEGISLATURE IN AUGUST.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—You suggest that members address the Governor, asking him to request General Sickles to prohibit the meeting of the General Assembly, on account of the unnecessary expense it would incur. That, perhaps, would be well enough, all things considered, were we certain that the new Constitution would be ratified.—But the Convention may present such a Constitution that the people would refuse to ratify it. Then we would be without any legal Legislature. I know it is held by some that the Commanding General can make, as well as unmake, laws; but we should remember that laws made by General Sickles can only be executed by the military. I presume no Judge or other civil officer of the State would adjudicate or execute a law made by the military Commander. He could not do so under the official oath of his office. All such laws must be executed by the military authorities. Is it advisable then, for any civil officer of the State to abandon his office, voluntarily, knowing that his place will be supplied (if supplied at all) by the military? Should we court and invite military interference, or should we continue in the exercise of our constitutional duties, leaving the responsibilities of military interference on others? I merely make these suggestions for the consideration of wiser heads and men of more experience than I have, hoping that the wisest and best policy will be pursued.

I have very little hope that the meeting of the Legislature in August would be very profitable to the State, unless the House of Commons would take up the Penitentiary bill, (which I believe was postponed until the 3d Monday in August.) Strike out that clause leaving it to a vote of the people for its ratification or rejection, pass the bill and send it back to the Senate for concurrence, all of which could be done in a very short time, and let the law go into operation at once.

If they would do that, the State would be well paid for the expenses of a short session in August. But if the House still refuse to pass a Penitentiary bill, I must confess I can conceive of but very little profitable legislation that would likely be done, situated as we are. In the meantime, I would urge the citizens of the State to demand of their representatives the immediate passage of a Penitentiary bill, provided the Legislature does meet again. It is right and proper for every man to have an opinion of his own on all subjects. But, for the life of me, I cannot understand why and how good, reliable, law-abiding, sensible men are opposed to the establishment of a Penitentiary, or how they can even hope that we can get along without one under the circumstances that surround us. And yet we find some that we take to be our best men, opposing it; at least it was so in the Legislature. But I am frank to confess that I have not met with any of that class so opposed to it outside the legislative halls, and I hope will not.

A MEMBER.

THE "COURIER."

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Allow me to ask a small space in your truly estimable paper for the purpose of calling the attention of the people of the old North State to the cheapest and one of the most ably edited journals in the South. I allude to the Courier, published at Warrenton, N. C., by J. Henry Bennett, Esq., and under the editorial charge of the Rev. J. B. Solomon, one of the Principals of the Warrenton Female College. Mr. Solomon is a profound thinker, an eloquent pulpit orator, a christian gentleman and a chaste, unassuming common sense writer. The Courier, under his supervision, is destined to become one of the most popular journals in the country. The proprietor, Mr. Bennett, is an energetic gentleman, skilful and indomitable in conducting the several departments of his paper. The writer knows no man more deserving of public patronage.

The Courier is devoted to literature, agriculture, County, State, and general news, "independent in politics and religion." Its recent unanswerable editorials with regard to the freedmen will no doubt exert a powerful influence on that misguided race, and ought to meet the approbation of every honorable man, white and black.

The Courier is always filled with diversified reading and general intelligence. Its poetical quotations are choice and admirably suited to the times, always bearing the soothing influence of hope to a desponding mind, whilst free from sectarianism.

The Courier is entirely opposed to the rule-or-ruin teachings of the Radical party; it is an eminently conservative, loyal paper, and the writer takes great pleasure in recommending it to the favorable consideration of the sons and daughters of the old tar heel State.

W.

SOUTHERN ORGANIZATION—A RADICAL PARTY.—The evidence is multiplying on every hand that the object of the Radicals in enacting the military bills was not to preserve order, but to use the machinery to organize a Radical party. General Ord is bitterly denounced because he assures the freedmen that it is of more consequence that the soil should be tilled and crops raised than that they should waste time on politics. Even General Sheridan, who has done so much to further the aims of Radicalism, is strenuously denounced by the New Orleans ultras because he will not do more. General Pope has played into the hands of the Mobile Radicals, to which he was advised by General Swayne, in removing Mayor Withers, and in working out a state of things there utterly disgraceful to the American name. In Virginia, General Brown, of the Freedmen's Bureau, is reported as having issued an order to the agents of the Bureau, "to see that the freedman is instructed in his right, [to vote,] and that he is registered and votes." It becomes, therefore, a duty imposed by General Brown upon his subordinates, not only to instruct the negro, but to exercise an absolute supervision over him, and see that he votes. If the statement is correct, General Howard should remove General Brown at once. But he will not do it, for that would be to impair the machinery by which it is hoped the Radicals may carry the State of Virginia. We have before said, and we repeat it, that the President is remiss in his duty in not keeping the military representatives of the Government within the set limits of their authority.—National Intelligencer.

THE NORTH CAROLINA TOBACCO CROP.—A telegram from Fortress Monroe says the accounts from three leading tobacco counties in North Carolina are not encouraging. The tobacco plants are scarce, owing to the unfavorable weather and the injury inflicted by the fly, and some of the lands have been planted in other crops. The eight leading tobacco counties in the old North State, in 1860, were: Caswell, Franklin, Granville, Orange, Person, Rockingham, Stokes and Warren, which, in 1860, produced 28,072,182 pounds of tobacco. Warren county produced, in 1860, 6,148,321 pounds, and Granville county 6,025,574. Mecklenburg is comparatively unimportant as a tobacco county, the product in 1860 being only 25,161 barrels.

A new paper in Connecticut classifies its marriages, births, and deaths under the heads "confidences," "advent-ures," and "certainty," which is as bad as the western editor's "hatched," "matched," and "despatched."

THE SOUTH.

Whether they will or wont, the people must face the fact that the prosperity of the North is closely identified with that of the South. It is time to see the truth that there is something else to be done with the Southern people besides this business of managing them with reference to the future power of the Radical party. There are other interests at stake than this one of gerrymandering the South to give the Radicals an increased vote in Congress. For no sensible man will dispute that the present management of the South is wholly controlled by the question of future power and plunder for a party. The interests of the country are forgotten. The interests of the Union are left out of view.

The absurdities which our present course exhibits are a disgrace to us. An example is visible in the twaddle of Radical men about treason. Among the inhabitants of the Southern States there is not one man in a hundred, black or white, who has not been an enemy of the government. The most ardent aiders and abettors of the rebellion were to be found among the non-combatants, the females and the negroes. The negro population was deeply imbued with the spirit of hatred to the North; and in thousands of instances this spirit led them to the verge of the battle-field; and where they could overcome their innate cowardice, it led some into the heat of battle. The Southern army was attended by large numbers of negroes, who from choice continued in the field, and who were as ardent enemies of the "Yankers" as any of their white masters.

Here we have then a population of some millions scattered through the Southern States, who have come under the dominion of the law, and are now subject to such punishment as the government may administer. But no one dreams of punishing them. Why not? Because it is said they were slaves, and their acts were to be regarded as compulsory. It is then conceded by the most enthusiastic devotees of the blood-for-blood doctrine that a nominal compulsion is a sufficient reason for excusing the great crime. That the compulsion was only nominal no one can doubt. At every moment, from 1861 to 1865, the negroes held possession of the homes and the base of supplies of the Southern army. There was never an insurrection, never a dream among them of casting off the nominal yoke of servitude. They were willing servants, and their masters had implicit confidence in their fidelity both to them and the Confederate cause. Emissaries were among them all this time, seeking to arouse them into action on the side of the Union, but they refused the temptations.

Looking at these facts, will the gentlemen who have never yet seen a battle-field, but who desire to add the terrors of legal executions to the slaughters of these years past, explain on what principle they draw a distinction between the white man and negro in questions relating to confiscation, treason and the like?

It is agreed on all hands that even the negro, who, with rifle in hand, on the rebel side, helped in the awful bloodshed of Cold Harbor, should not be tried as a traitor. It is even agreed that the free negro who took a shot now and then for the fun of the thing over the deadly works in front of Petersburg ought not to be punished as a traitor. But who will define the distinction? The pressure at the South which drove young and old into the ranks was tenfold more visible and tangible than the pressure on the negro. Why not have some sympathy for the white man? Why this fundamental distinction which tends to a conflict of races? Certainly the day of wisdom and of calmer thought and wiser action must be before us.

It is impossible that a nation should go blundering on in this blind, inconsistent manner forever. Our present policy at the South, distinguishing as it does white from black, to the depreciation of the white and the elevation of the black over him, is a disgrace to civilization. There is no satisfactory explanation of the conduct of some of the Generals now in command at the South, nor is it improper to attribute to them a desire to provoke hatred and perpetuate discord, since there is no choice between charging them with this desire and with the grossest stupidity. They are none of them stupid, and therefore it is beyond reasonable doubt that they work with intent to accomplish that result which their course does accomplish. Riot, and more and more bloodshed, follow their tracks.

The Generals to whom we allude have thus far succeeded in keeping their departments in a state of turmoil, and in giving their Northern Radical friends abundant material for abuse of the South. With such Generals the condition of the South may be fairly regarded as hopeless. So long as they remain in command the prospect will grow darker and darker. Up to the present moment, a careful estimate of the work done in the Southern States by the military officers convinces us that it amounts to this, namely, from a condition of comparative quiet and hopefulness, for white and black, they have brought things into a much worse state for both, and, whereas the relations of the two races were peaceful and mutually satisfactory, they are now becoming dangerously disturbed by the acts of the Generals and the men they employ. All this reacts with terrible force on us at the North.—There has not been in many years a more serious state of feeling than now pervades our business circles. Ruin stares men in the face, and its approach is hastened by the folly, the madness, with which politicians are using the military position to accomplish their nefarious purposes at the South.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

THE REMOVAL OF GOVERNOR WELLS.—The action of General Sheridan in removing Governor Wells is a subject of a great deal of comment here. There is very little reason to doubt that Judge Durant, who was appointed Governor by General Sheridan, vice Governor Wells, yesterday telegraphed to General Sheridan declining the office. He was actuated in this, it is said, by the conviction that the office, under the present circumstances, would be one of great care and anxiety, and from the belief, doubtless, that Governor Wells will be reinstated.—General Sheridan is believed to be guilty of disobedience of orders in removing the Governor, after having received the telegram from Secretary Stanton directing him to suspend all further action in the case of the Levee Commissioners: and it is reported this evening that General Grant and Mr. Stanton had a conference to-day on this question, at which General Grant favored the administration of a reprimand to General Sheridan, cautioning him to greater prudence in the future, instead of ordering him to be removed.—Washington Correspondent New York Herald.

THE PRESIDENT'S TOUR.—The visit of the President of the U. S. to Raleigh, and the reception he has met, along the line of travel, and in that city, is in marked contrast with the scenes and incidents of his trip to the North and West last summer, where disorder, tumult, and bad conduct, characterized, too often, the assemblages of people who came to see, and frequently to annoy and insult him. The accounts of the orderly, respectful, and hearty welcome of the Chief Magistrate, in Richmond, Fredericksburg, Petersburg, Weldon and Raleigh, read like the "old times," when the people felt that their dignity was concerned in the demeanor they exhibited when the President was their guest.—Alexandria Gazette.

LIFE INSURANCE.

From the Wall Street Reporter.

Ætna Life Insurance Company.

THE ÆTNA LIFE PRESENTS THE MOST signal example of American progress and accumulative energy. Every branch and department of the institution appears to be replete with the most active vitality and growth, and the rapidity of its advancement is so great that it promises to eclipse all its competitors and to become, if it is not already, the first Life Insurance Company of America.

How nearly these presages are already accomplished and how certain they are of complete and speedy fulfilment, may be gathered from the following facts. In 1861 it issued 589 policies, the premiums amounting to but $79,553.67. Since that period its growth has been something altogether unprecedented in the history of Life Insurance, its business having been annually doubled, tripled, and, on one occasion, almost quadrupled, till it has culminated in the yearly issue of over fourteen thousand policies, insuring over forty million dollars, at the same time that it was the recipient of the annual revenue of over Three and a Half Millions of Dollars.

It accordingly appears that the Ætna Life insured last year, with one exception, the largest number of persons of any Company in the United States, and even as to amount insured it is surpassed by only two Companies, and it is probable that it would not have been excelled by them in this respect, if it were not deemed incompatible with its permanent interests to grant a single policy for a sum exceeding ten thousand dollars; for, although so remarkably progressive, the Ætna's course has always been equally prudent, safe and conservative. But certainly in its increase of business in 1866 over that of 1865, including the issue of policies, amount insured, and total income, when its position and that of other Companies at the commencement of last year are duly considered, it must be regarded, beyond comparison, as the most successful of all. The present year witnesses no abatement of this youthful vigor and growth. On the contrary, we learn that the Company's increase of business in 1867 is nearly double that of the corresponding months of 1866. The realization of the avowed purpose of the management of the Ætna Life to make their Company the first, largest and best in the Union, appears therefore to have become a part of the "manifest destiny of the nation."

It must be admitted that there is something truly inspiring in the contemplation of the noble achievements of this Company; for although the material progress it has made is measurable by the actuary, the good it has done and the good it is yet destined to accomplish, transcend the calculation of all but Omniscience. The battle's victory, the triumph of material art and science are less glorious than the conquests of genuine philanthropy, of which Life Insurance is perhaps the most perfect emanation. In all countries and in all times the widow and orphan have been regarded as special objects of solicitude and bounty by the good and great, and even in the dark ages, the dauntless and true knight added a crowning lustre to his fame by affording them relief and protection. Yet never until now—never until the complete establishment of Life Insurance, have the widow, orphan, and such dependants been justly, sufficiently, liberally and honorably provided for, and a Company like the Ætna Life, that takes the lead in this most beneficent work, is therefore deserving of all honor, praise and encouragement.

There is yet one feature peculiar to the Ætna Life entitled to especial commendation and that is its economy. In this regard, notwithstanding its activity, youth, growth, and amount of new business, it presents a remarkable exception, and the skill and care of its President, E. A. Bulkeley, Esq., and its zealous and able Secretary, T. O Enders, Esq., are manifested in the success which has attended their efforts to unite in their management the qualities of extraordinary efficiency and strict economy. The ratio of the Ætna's expenses to premium and total income is lower than that of the Mutual Life, its Titanic rival, and, under the latter heading, less than that of the Connecticut Mutual, notwithstanding the advantages possessed by these companies in their great accumulation of many years' business; but, although the ratio of the Ætna's disbursements is now considerably below the general average, it might have been reduced below that of any but for its generous, and in many instances, most laudable practice of paying claims before maturity. It keeps no orphan or widow waiting for her insurance money, even when not yet legally payable. It consults the spirit and design of the institution rather than the policy of preparing materials for an attractive exhibit. This genial benevolence and liberal dealing render the company a great favorite with the public.

Similar commendation might be justly extended to its other popular features and reforms, including its non-forfeiture policies, its helpful credit given during the continuance of policy, its equitable division of all the profits among the insured, except the six per cent. on the stock capital, and its excellent and productive dividend system. The last feature has afforded great satisfaction to its members, for its dividend which "is paid two years from date of policy and annually thereafter on the amount of premium," has this year, and for several years past, amounted to 50 per cent., and is paid promptly in the same year it is declared in cash on cash policies, or applied to the credit of those who have received credit.

We should, however, exceed the space to which we are restricted, if we were to enumerate the special advantages enjoyed by the members of the Ætna Life, who now number over thirty thousand, and who seem to fully appreciate their privileges, for they are the company's voluntary and in many instances most efficient agents, and assist in spreading its benefits with an earnestness and cordiality which speak well for their benevolence and volumes for the institution itself.

The Ætna Life is one of our soundest and safest Life corporations. It has over five million dollars securely invested, and a million dollars surplus above all liabilities, including the full value of all its existing policies. From every point of view this great Company displays features of special merit and unusual excellence; and if the prediction that its issue of policies during this year will amount to twenty-two thousand and its receipts to seven million dollars, should be fulfilled, it will get no more than its due—no more than the best friends of Life Insurance and of humanity (for they are identical) sincerely trust it will obtain and employ, as hitherto, to the advancement and elevation of society and eventually to the grateful relief and honorable maintenance of the widows and orphans of the provident and true hearted.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The Fall Session of Louisburg Female College (Rev. T. M. Jones, President,) will commence on the fourth Wednesday of July.

See daily announcement of Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

SOUTHERN ORPHAN'S ASSOCIATION.—Mr. John Bragg, late Agent of the Association, having been ordered to Richmond on telegraphic duty, Mr. Wm. H. Moore has been appointed as his successor. The drawing will take place on the 17th. inst. All who wish tickets, therefore, in the Presentation Concert, will have to apply within a few days. Mr. Moore may be found at the store of W. Robert Andrews, Family Grocer, Fayetteville Street.

OBSEQUIES OF THE LATE COL. BURGWYN.—We have seldom witnessed a more touching spectacle than was presented yesterday afternoon, on the occasion of the interment, in the Memorial Cemetery, of the remains of the gallant and gifted Henry K. Burgwyn, Jr., Colonel of the 26th. N. C. Troops, who fell on the bloody field of Gettysburg.—Christ Church was crowded to its utmost capacity. The catafalque, in front of the chancel, on which rested the coffin, was most exquisitely ornamented with the choicest flowers of the season. The sublime ritual was impressively read by the Rev. Dr. Mason, after which the remains were escorted to the Cemetery and buried in that beautiful spot, amid the other noble spirits who sleep with its sacred precincts, —the final sepulture being also crowned by fair hands with the loveliest floral offerings. Rest, brave young soldier!—noble type of Southern manhood!

"Young Lycidas is dead,—dead ere his prime,
And hath not left his peer behind!"

MR. W. W. FIFE will deliver a lecture on vocal music to-night in the Methodist Church. Mr. Fife proposes to form a class in vocal music in this City. He is said to be a capital instructor.

THE RECENT rains have been the most severe that have been experienced in this section in many years. The creeks are greatly swollen and we apprehend that serious injury has been done the growing crops.

PERSONAL.—We learn that Chief Justice Chase, in company with Judge Brooks, Ex-Prov. Gov. Holden and Col. D. M. Carter, attended the African Methodist Church in this City, on yesterday morning. We presume they attended Tupper's Church at night.

THERE is to be a large mass meeting of the colored citizens of Franklin, in Louisburg, to-day. J. J. Davis and R. I. Wynne, Esqrs., are to address the gathering.

THE YOUNG people of Lincolnton have a Concert, this evening,—the proceeds to be appropriated to the relief of the suffering and destitute in Union county.

NUMBER 33.—We learn, from the Washington correspondence of the New York Herald, received by the last mail, that general Order No. 33 has been issued by Gen. Sickles, and that it appoints the following named persons to constitute a board to report, for the consideration and action of the Commanding General, needful arrangements, regulations and forms of proceeding for registration:—Brevet Colonel W. B. Royall, Fifth United States Cavalry, Chief of Bureau of Civil Affairs, President; H. H. Helper, of N. C.; Jefferson Fisher, of Raleigh, N. C.; J. W. Cordoza, of Charleston, South Carolina, and L. Boozer, of Lexington, N. C. The board will convene and organize at the Citadel in Charleston, on the 7th. day of June, 1867, and continue in session until dissolved by an order from District Headquarters. The compensation of the civilian members will be six dollars a day, and commutation at the rate of ten cents a mile for each mile traveled on the nearest usual route to and from Charleston.

THE GRAPE.—The three best and chief varieties of American grapes—the Isabella, the Catawba, and the Scuppernong—may all be said to be natives of North Carolina.

The first received its designation in honor of Mrs. Isabella Gibbs, of North Carolina, whose husband carried a vine from the garden of Gov. Smith, in Brunswick, to New York, and planted it on Long Island. For table use it is now, perhaps, more universally cultivated than any other grape.

We are not prepared with the evidence as to the indigenousness to this State of the Catawba, but such is the reputation of its nativity. We know the fact, only, that it bounds in certain localities, and that all the physical indications are in favor of its luxuriant and profitable culture.

The delicious Scuppernong, (or, as we find it written in the earliest records, "es sco pernon,") is undoubtedly native, and exists in our midst in almost incredible abundance. The first explorers of the State, RALEIGH and others, found the vines stretching in all directions in the primeval woods, covered with their heavy clusters of fruit, and Lawson mentions it with an enthusiasm rather foreign to the style of his quaint historical narrative.

COST OF REGISTRATION.—The cost of registration will, it is now said, greatly exceed the first estimates. The Herald's correspondent says:

"The estimate of $2,000,000 to defray the expenses of registration, previously forwarded to the Herald, will, as then stated, fall immeasurably short of the amount required for that expensive job. Officers of the Quartermaster's Department with whom I have conversed, and who can best form an estimate of the real expense that may be incurred, state that half a million will scarcely cover the amount required for Virginia alone. At this rate five millions—instead of five hundred thousand, as appropriated by Congress—will be hardly sufficient to complete the 'job'. Officers of the army, one of whom will be on each registration board, have to be paid not only their pay, but allowances for fuel, light, quarters and transportation, not counting orderlies, horses, and other incidental expenses. The civilians, who are all poor, must be allowed, as well as a respectable salary, contingent expenses to support their families while absent, besides little privileges always attached to government officers. In this way reconstruction will be much dearer than the country has been inclined to suppose."

A MIRROR WHICH DOES NOT FLATTER.—We copy from the New York World an extract from the letter of its New Orleans correspondent, which possesses a peculiar significance for us in Norfolk.

In speaking of the condition of affairs in the Crescent City, the writer says:

"The demands of the negro Radicals may be summed up thus: A negro Mayor for New Orleans—a Mr. Jordan, who is a wealthy and popular black man, being the person named for the office; negro policemen; negro aldermanic board, who will pass ordinances compelling hotel proprietors, theatres and restaurants to throw open their establishments to the patronage of the ruling race; negro delegates to the Convention to form a new Constitution; negro representatives in the Legislature, to assemble under the new Constitution, when framed and ratified; negro Representatives in Congress, and a negro Governor."

With a majority of 5,000 in the city, and 15,000 in the State, the programme can be carried out.

This is the mirror in which we may behold what will happen to ourselves if we refuse to register. It is not a pleasant reflection, but it shows us the truth. How avert it? By organizing, and bringing out our strength.—Norfolk Virginian.

His highness, the Ruler of Alabama, is fulminating orders, thick and fast, to his subjects. By the last, which he numbers Twenty five, the Mayor and chief of police of cities, and the sheriff or his deputy in the counties, are "required" to be present at every public meeting or assemblage which may be held and organize a police force, or posse, to preserve the peace. They are "required" to know of every such meeting,—ignorance will be no excuse. In case of an outbreak these functionaries are to be deposed and punished, unless it can be "clearly shown that they did actively and faithfully perform their duties, both by word and deed." We fancy that the offices of mayor, sheriff, &c., will be less sought after than when the incumbents were not thus liable to be low stringed.—Rich. Enquirer.

The action of the Judiciary committee shows conclusively that we will not have a July session of Congress unless some extraordinary event transpires between now and the 4th of next month. Those members of Congress who were most zealous in their endeavors to have a summer session have become disheartened, and do not think there is the slightest chance for it.—N. Y. Tribune.

Rev. Dr. Curry, editor of the Methodist Christian Advocate, says the Atlantic Monthly is the organ of free-thinkers: the New York Tribune had always been anti-Christian: the Nation is edited by polite infidels; the Times is "reckless of truth, propriety and decency," and the Evening Post has "Unitarian proclivities."

THE CAUSE OF THE FALL OF QUERETARO—MAXIMILIAN'S CONDITIONS.

WASHINGTON, June 8.

San Louis Potosi advices of May 18, say that Gen. Mequel Lopez, who was high in Maximilian's confidence, and two other Imperial Generals, caused the fall of Queretaro by selling one of the principal forts.

Maximilian, in surrendering, made three requests,—that he should not be insulted, but treated as a prisoner of war. If any one shot, he is to be first. If shot, the body is not to be abused.

MORE OF THE SHOOTING AFFAIR IN PARIS.

NEW YORK, June 8.

A special to the Herald, from Paris, says that the Imperial party had a very narrow escape yesterday, the ball passing in a line between two of the distinguished personages, and wounding a lady standing in the street.

The assassin attempted a second shot, when the pistol burst. The police saved the life of the assassin, who is from Belgium, from the enraged populace.

A magnificent ball was given at the Russian Embassy the same evening. The Czar with his sons, and the Emperor and Empress of France were present. The members of the Russian royal party were congratulated on their escape.

SHERIDAN AND WELLS. THE LATTER VACATES.

NEW ORLEANS, July 9.

Yesterday morning at half past 9 o'clock, Brevet Brig. Gen. Jno. W. Forsythe, of Gen. Sheridan's staff, called at the Executive office, at Mechanic Institute, and told Gov. Wells that he bore a written communication to him from the General Commanding, which was found to be as follows:

HEADQUARTERS FIFTH MILITARY DISTRICT,
NEW ORLEANS, June 7.

Mr. J. Madison Wells, ex-Gov. of Louisiana:

SIR:—Gov. Flanders has just informed me that he has made an official demand on you for the records of the office which you have heretofore held as Governor of Louisiana, and that you have declined to turn them over to him, disputing the right to remove from office by me, which you have acknowledged and urged on me up to the time of your own removal. I therefore send Brevet Brig. Gen. John W. Forsythe, of my staff, to notify you that he is sent by me to eject you from the Governor's room forcibly unless you consider this notification as equivalent to ejection.

(Signed) P. H. SHERIDAN,
Maj. Gen. U. S., Com. Fifth Mil. Dist.

After reading the communication Gov. Wells stated to Gen. Forsythe:

"SIR:—I surrender the office [hold only to the sword," and called up Judge Ryan to bear witness to what he said. Without making any response whatever Gen. Forsythe withdrew.

Ex. Gov. Wells has consulted with eminent counsel as to what course to pursue at law.

About 10 o'clock Gov. Flanders, accompanied by Gen. Forsythe, appeared at the Executive office and entered upon his duties as Governor of Louisiana, without any ceremony whatever. He stated that his efforts should, to the best of his ability, be exerted for the public good.

GOV. FLANDERS—MAYOR WITHERS—GEN. JOHNSTON AND OTHER WASHINGTON NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 9.

Benj. F. Flanders, the new Governor of Louisiana, arrived there twenty years ago from N. H. and commenced his carier as a clerk in the charity hospital. He was subsequently Secretary to Mayor Crossman, an ardent Know Nothing, Secretary of the Opelousas Railroad, was violently opposed to co-operation during the incipiency of the rebellion, and Federal Treasury Agent for several years past.

Sheridan seems to be unsupported here. His prompt action defeats the plans of the schemers and shocks the conservatives. Some changes in the District Commander are regarded as certain.

The July meeting of Congress is now considered almost probable.

Ex-Mayor Withers has returned from New York and will communicate with the President on Monday

Gen. Grant has returned from West Point.

Gen. J. Johnston was at the War Department yesterday looking after the interests of his Rail Road. It is his first visit since 1861, when he vacated the Quarter Master General's Office.

The Treasury will redeem and destroy $20,000,000 of compound interest notes next week.

The State Department has been officially notified of the commutation of the sentences of the Irish American Fenians.

The Postmaster General returned this morning and the President this evening.

The President received the first intimation of Wells' removal through the newspapers. He considers those removals as unauthorized by the law.

Surratt's trial undoubtedly commences to-morrow.

MONDAY, JUNE 10, 1867.

THE OLD STORY.

Come sit by me, Katy, and tell me
Of what he was talking last night!
When you stood at the gate till the moonbeams
Had quenched all the stars with her light!

You came back with cheeks growing crimson,
And eyelashes glittering with tears,
And a smile, which, half sad, half triumphant,
Still over your sweet mouth appears.

Did he talk of the beauty of summer?
Or praise the wild rose's perfume?
Or speak of our arbors so rustic,
Where woodbine and jessamine bloom?

He told you a "story!" Oh! did he?
Well, Katy dear, tell it to me!
You've "almost forgot it?" Already!
How very much flattered he'd be.

You say you "think I may guess it!"
Yes, Katy, the story I know;
'Tis an old tale, yet always a sweet one—
I'm certain that you found it so.

It was new in the first days of Adam,
When wandering through Eden's fair bowers,
In Eve's little ear it was whispered,
While she, blushing, played with the flowers.

You're blushing, too; what is the matter?
Why, what are you crying about?
Your grandfather told your grandmother
The very same story, no doubt.

Just three little words tell this story—
What thousands of hearts they have thrilled!
How many with joy have they gladdened!
How many with sorrow have filled!

These three little words: "I love you!"
You see 'tis the very same tale
That you heard there last night by the woodbine,
Beneath the moon's silvery veil.

Don't say that I know nothing about it—
You know very well it is true:
But, Katy, my dear, did you tell him
The same story that he told you?

RECOVERY OF A CHALICE STOLEN AT THE SACK OF COLUMBIA.—During the siege of Charleston a quantity of valuable plate, the church records, and other property belonging to St. Michael's Church, in this city, were sent up to Columbia, and stored there in the vaults of the Bank of Charleston for safe keeping. After the burning of Columbia no trace of any of the valuables belonging to the church could be found, and it was with sadness assumed that they had been altogether destroyed in the terrible fire. A few days ago, however, the Rev. P. T. Keith, the pastor of the church, received a letter from the Hon. Alex. Wakefield Bradford, in which it was stated that the writer had seen in a pawnbroker's shop in New York, a silver chalice, which, by the inscription, belonged to St. Michael's Church, Charleston. This letter was properly acknowledged, and on yesterday Mr. Keith received the chalice by the Southern Express Company.

The chalice which has now been returned to its ecclesiastical home was presented to the church in 1762 by Governor Boone, who in that year succeeded Gov. Bull. It bears in front the Royal Arms of England and an inscription reciting the manner of its presentation, and, with the exception of some slight dints, is in no way injured.

It will, of course, be a source of great satisfaction to every Charlestonian to know that one relic of old and happier days has been rescued from the hands of the spoiler, but that this chalice should have been found in a shop in New York is a presumptive proof that none of the other valuables stored with it were destroyed by fire, and that they are now hidden or stored away in some Northern town. If they were only regretted on account of their pecuniary value their loss might still be borne, but amongst them there are books of record which no money can replace, and upon which the result of many a forthcoming legal proceeding may depend. It is hoped then that every man of honor in the North will watch for any and every article which can be identified as having been stolen from a Southern State; and, by so doing, he will deserve and obtain something more than the sincere and lasting gratitude of those to whom these "spoils of war" do of right belong.—Charleston Mercury.

A curious case has just been tried in the New Orleans courts. The children of a blind mendicant having been enticed away by some other professional beggars, the father brought suit. One of the witnesses testified that nine out of ten who are led about as blind have good sound eyes. The plan to make blind beggars is this: The imposter secures a peice of blue-stone, which, when dissolved in water, will make fifteen men blind for four days. The lids of the eyes are then bathed with the liquid, which acts as an astringent, and the beggar cannot see until the effect wears off. The lids are tightly closed, and if they are forced open there is a temporary film over the pupil which would deceive any but the most skiful oculist. The judge sentenced the men who had enticed away the boy and the mother of the boy to six months in the workhouse in default of a $1,000 bond for good behavior. It is interesting to know that these $1,000 bonds were given by the beggars on the spot. One of the defendants had $3,000 on his person and a certificate of deposit for $12,000 more.

ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS.

OPEN JUNE 1.

This favorite and delightful watering-place, having undergone thorough renovation, is prepared to receive visitors. The owners have made every effort in the outfit and equipment to render the place more than ever attractive to those in quest of recreation, while to the invalid its medicinal waters hold out new hopes of health. It may be confidently claimed for them that they have in a great many cases relieved, and in many more cases cured, the following diseases: Scrofula, and many chronic Cutaneous diseases; Chronic Thrush, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Dropsy, Affections of Kidney and Bladder, and Piles; and, in connection with the Hot Baths, Chronic Rheumatism.

As an appetizer, a tonic, and general restorative to an enfeebled constitution, it is perhaps unrivalled amongst mineral waters. The proprietors have engaged for the approaching season

It shall be the aim of the undersigned to keep their establishment Fully up to the Foremost; and they hope to see a renewal of the social re-unions which in former years lent such a charm to these mountain retreats.

GENERAL ORDER NO. 32.

HEADQUARTERS, 2ND MILITARY DISTRICT,
Charleston, May 30.

General Orders No. 32.

1. Any citizen, a qualified voter according to the requirements of the Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2nd, 1867, and the act supplemental thereto, passed March 23rd, 1867, is eligible to office in the Provisional government of North and South Carolina. All persons appointed to office will be required to take the oath prescribed by the act aforesaid and to file the same duly subscribed and sworn with the Post Commander.

2. All citizens assessed for taxes, and who shall have paid taxes for the current year, are qualified to serve as jurors. It shall be the duty of the proper civil officers, charged with providing lists of jurors, to proceed within their several jurisdictions, without delay, and ascertain the names of all qualified persons, and place them on the jury lists, and from such revised lists all jurors shall be hereafter summoned, and drawn in the manner required by law.

3. All citizens are eligible to follow any licensed calling, employment or avocation, subject to such impartial regulations as may be prescribed by municipal or other competent authority, not inconsistent with common rights and the Constitution and laws of the United States. The bond required as security shall not exceed the penal sum of one hundred dollars. One or more sureties being citizens and worth, in the aggregate, double the amount of the bond, over and above just debts, will be sufficient.

4. The Mayors of cities and other municipal and town officers, and all Sheriffs, Magistrates and Police officers, are required to be vigilant and efficient in maintaining order, and in the discharge of their duties. They will be expected to co-operate with the military authorities.

5. Post commanders may summon to their aid, whenever the ordinary means at their disposal shall not be sufficient to execute their orders, such of the civil officers, and as many of the citizens, within the territorial limits of the military post, as may be necessary, and the neglect or refusal of any person to aid and assist in the execution of the orders of the Commanding officer will be deemed a misdemeanor, punishable by such fine and imprisonment as may be imposed by a military tribunal approved by the Commanding General.

6. No license for the sale of intoxicating liquors in quantities less than one gallon or to be drank on the premises shall be granted to any person other than an Inn-keeper. The number of such licenses shall be determined, and the fees to be charged for each license shall be prescribed and collected, by the municipal or town authorities and appropriated exclusively for the benefit of the poor. If any person shall be found drunk on the premises where liquor is sold, the license may be revoked by any magistrate. The tax imposed by the Internal Revenue laws of the United States is an additional charge and does not excuse the person from the observance of local regulations, nor exempt him from the payment of such other license fees as may be imposed by the municipal or other competent authorities.

7. All contracts hereafter made for the manufacture, sale or transportation, storage or insurance of intoxicating liquors shall within this military district be deemed and treated as against public policy, and no civil action, suit or proceedings for the enforcement of any such contract shall be entertained in any court.

8 In public conveyances on railroads, highways, streets or navigable waters, no discrimination because of color or caste shall be made, and the common rights of all citizens therein shall be recognized and respected. The violation of this regulation will be deemed a misdemeanor and render the offender liable to arrest and trial by a Military tribunal to be designated by the commanding General, besides such damages as the injured party may sue for and recover in the civil Courts.

9. The remedy by distress for rent is abolished. Where lands are leased, or let out for hire or rent, cotton, corn or other produce of the same, when severed from the land, may be impounded, but the same shall not be removed. Any cotton, corn or other produce so impounded shall be held as security for the rent or hire so claimed and may be sold in satisfaction of any judgment for the same, Provided, that any unsatisfied claim for labor bestowed upon the cultivation of such cotton, corn, or other produce, shall, in no case, be postponed to any demand for rent or hire. But to the extent of such claim for labor there shall be a lien on such cotton, corn and other produce having preference over any claim for rent or hire.

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 2d, 1867.]

Whereas, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions: Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years of age and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th. section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowlege and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof: that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God," which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers, and all agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."
